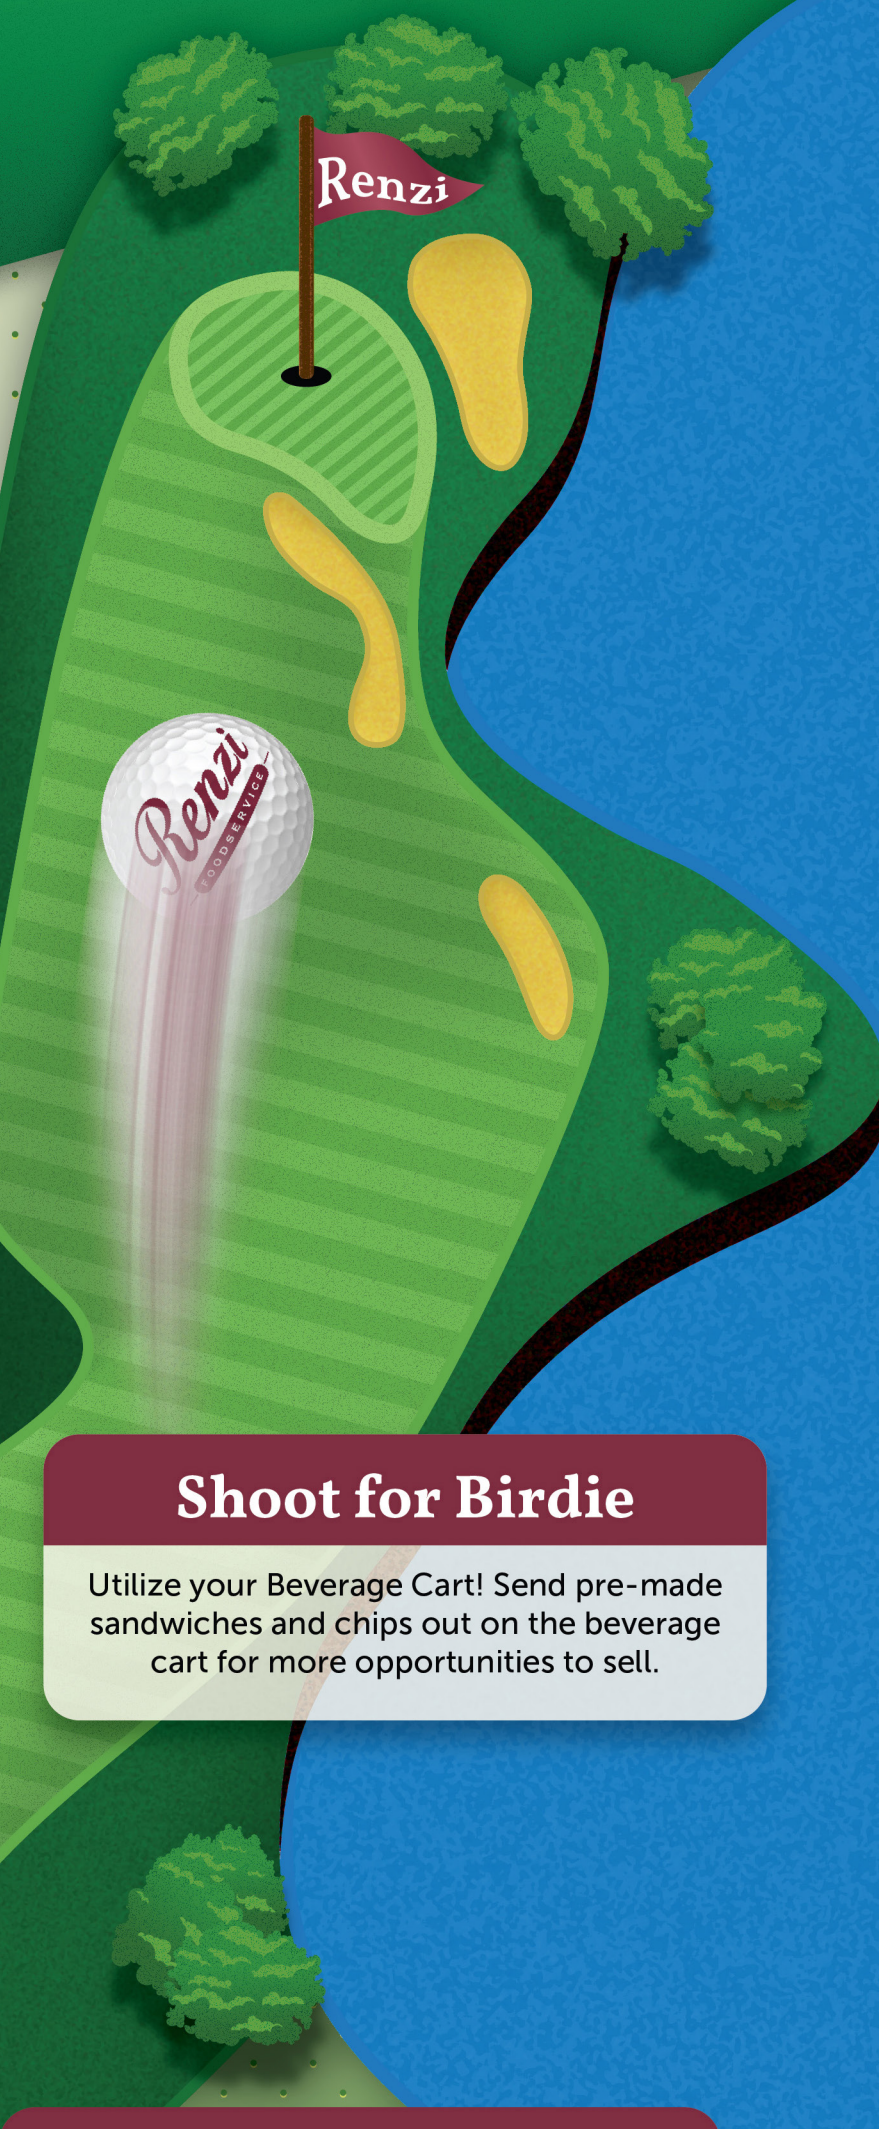
RENZI'S MAP to a COMPLETE Snack Shed



Snack Shed Hole In One

Offer breakfast options and coffee in the morning for those early risers. Make sure you're stocking enough "grab & go" items for those impulse buyers and always have the classics like hot dogs, burgers, and beer for lunch.

Watch Out for Bogeys

Don't get caught with an empty snack shed. Utilize the Golf Guide Order Checklist to make sure you're not forgetting anything important.

"FORE!" Advertise

Put your snack shed menu in the hands of your players. Make your menu available in as many locations as possible: golf carts, pro shop, and at the bar!

Shoot for Birdie

Utilize your Beverage Cart! Send pre-made sandwiches and chips out on the beverage cart for more opportunities to sell.

Stay On Par

Keep players moving and grow profitability with your snack shed. Hungry players will love the smell of burgers on the grill as they walk past. Have hot food ready for golfers to grab on the way to the next hole!

Tee Off with Renzi

Snack Shed, Snack Shack, Halfway House, Halfway Hut, or Midway; whatever you call it, on-course food and beverage services are emerging as an essential component of a healthy bottom line.
